

AP United States History

Chapter 10 – Pages 196- Handout 2

Mutinous Moonshiners in Pennsylvania

1. How does the excise tax hurt some persons?
2. Why is whiskey so important?
3. What is the outcome of the battles with the moonshiners?
4. What are the consequences of rebellion for Washington's government?

Emergence of Political Parties

5. How are Hamilton's economic programs having a political downside?
6. Why does the text call previous opposition groups factions and not political parties?
7. Why do the founders not anticipate the development of political parties?
8. What is the role of the political party which is out of power?

Impact of the French Revolution

9. Why do most Americans support the French Revolution in the beginning?
10. Why do Federalists start to fear the French Revolution?
11. What is the attitude of Jefferson to the Revolution?

Washington's Neutrality Proclamation

12. Why does the Franco-American Alliance a problem for the US?
13. Why does Washington not want the US to become involved in the British-French conflict?
14. What does the Neutrality Proclamation provide?
15. Why does the proclamation help create political parties?
16. How does Citizen Genet cause problems for Washington?
17. Why do the authors maintain that by remaining neutral that Americans help the French?

Embroidments with Britian

18. How do the British continue to violate the Treaty of Paris?
19. How do the British instigate an Indian war?
20. What does the Treaty of Greenville provide?
21. What are the British doing to further challenge the Americans?
22. Why does Hamilton believe we need the British?

Jay's Treaty and Washington's Farewell

23. How is Hamilton undermining Jay's ability to negotiate a solution with the British?
24. What are the terms of Jay's Treaty?
25. Why do Democratic-Republicans oppose the treaty?
26. What does Pickney's Treaty provide?
27. What is the important tradition which Washington start for presidents?
28. What did Washington mean when he opposed permanent alliances?